

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
OFFICE OF THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY
(MANPOWER, RESERVE AFFAIRS AND LOGISTICS)
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20360
7 February 1980

The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner,

Thank you for your very kind note. I think your choice of Chuck Briggs to be CIA Inspector General is an excellent one. Were I to have picked from in-house, Chuck would have been my choice as well.

Since writing to you, I have taken the position of Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Logistics). I was seduced into accepting the position by the promise of a much greater range of responsibilities than I had with the Army. I have now been on the job less than a week and it looks like it will be fun. Needless to say, an important decision such as this change represents could not have been taken without the wise counsel of my Navy consiglieri [redacted]

Best regards,

Yours very truly,
